Action can be taken if Dharmasthala complainant's claims are false, says Karnataka Home Minister

BENGALURU, AUG 14 /- /Karnataka Home Minister G. Parameshwara on Thursday told the Legislative Assembly that action can be taken under the law against the complainant-witness in the Dharmasthala "mass burial" case if the Special investigation Team finds his allegations to be false.

Emphasising a fair and impartial probe, Parameshwara said, "There should be no politics or religion involved. The truth must emerge within the framework of the law." His remarks came during a discussion in the Assembly, where BJP legislators criticised the government for its handling of the investigation and inaction against what they called a "slender campaign" targeting Dharmasthala and the temple there. They demanded an interim report from the government and action against the complainant and others allegedly behind him, claiming the allegations were part of a "lookit to denigrate Hindu gods and their places of worship." The SIT, formed by the state government, is probing claims of mass murder, rape, and mass burials in Dharmasthala over the past two decades. The complainant, a former sanitation worker whose identity has not been revealed, alleged that between 1995 and 2014 he was forced to handle bodies—including women and minors—and that he showed signs of sexual assault. He has given a statement before a magistrate. As part of the probe, the SIT has been conducting investigation at multiple locations identified by the complainant-witness in the forested areas along the banks of the Netravathi River in Dharmasthala.

where some skeletal remains should not take political or religious turns. Let me make so far. The minister appealed it very clear to the government did not form the request is that this issue SIT under any pressure. We have not bowed to pressure so far and will not do so in the future. Our focus is solely on uncovering the truth and ensuring justice." (PTI)
