S rejects TN's plea against construction of Mekedatu Balancing Reservoir project

NEW DELHI, NOV 13 /-- The Supreme Court on Thursday rejected a plea by the Tamil Nadu government against construction of the Mekedatu Balancing Reservoir project across the Cauvery river by Karnataka, terming it "premature".

A bench comprising Chief Justice of India BV Gopal, Justices K Vinod Chandran and Justice NV Anjaria said the plan would be approved only after considering the objections of the State as well as the opinion of the expert bodies, Cauvery Water Regulation Committee (CWRC) and the Cauvery Water Management Authority (CWMA).

"At this stage, what is being done by the order passed by the CWC is only permitting the preparation of the DPR, that too after taking into consideration the objections of the State of Tamil Nadu, the experts of the CWMA and CWRC." It is further to be noted that the CWC had further directed that the prior approval of the CWMA and CWRC would be a prerequisite for the consideration of the DPR. In that view of the matter, we find the present application is at a premature stage," the bench said. The apex court said the final decision by CWC would be taken only after preparation for DPR and opinion of CWMA and CWRC.

The Supreme Court noted that earlier in August 2023, the three-judge bench had refused to go into the issue which asked with respect to the preparation of the DPR, that too after taking into consideration the situations saying that the court does not possess the expertise. "We reiterate what was observed in our order dated August 25, 2023 that we do not possess expertise. This court time and again reiterated that this court should refrain from areas which are best reserved for experts," the bench said.

The apex court said Karnataka is bound to release the water in pursuance of the directions of the court and added, "If Karnataka fails to comply with the directions of this court, it faces the risk of committing contempt of the court."

Deputy Chief Minister D K Shivakumar on Thursday hailed the Supreme Court's verdict. Welcoming the ruling, he said Shivakumar, who also holds the Water Resources portfolio, said:

"Justice has flown from the seat of justice." He asserted that Karnataka had merely sought its rightful share of Cauvery water. Terming the plea as "premature", a bench comprising Chief Justice of India BV Gopal and Justices K Vinod Chandran and N V Anjaria said the plan would be approved only after considering the objections of the state and the opinions of the expert bodies—the Cauvery Water Regulation Committee (CWRC) and the Cauvery Water Management Authority (CWMA). Speaking to reporters here, the Deputy CM said: "That is what we were requesting—our right and our water. We are not disturbing anyone. Tamil Nadu will also benefit and get sufficient water." He said the state would comply with the project and construct the reservoir within Karnataka at its own cost.

"We will build it in our area and with our funds. We will also help Tamil Nadu during deficient rainfall. It is a balancing reservoir," Shivakumar added. Calling the verdict "a victory for Bengaluru residents," he said it would benefit not only the residents of the Karnataka capital and its visitors but also Tamil Nadu, which would receive sufficient water. "I request Tamil Nadu to accept it with humility. Let us work together. They don't have any other option. They have to give us justice," he said. (PTI)

Land deal case: Danve accuses Fadnavis of protecting Parth

C H H A T R A P A T I SAMBHAJINAGAR, NOV 13 /-- Shiv Sena (UBT) leader Ambadas Danve on Thursday accused Maharashtra Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis of protecting Deputy CM Ajit Pawar's son Parth, who is at the centre of a row scrapped Rs 300-crore controversial Pune land deal case.

The government was sparing no effort to save the case, he said, and demanded that no leniency be shown towards Parth and a case be registered against him. Danve also claimed that as per his knowledge, after the land deal case kicked up a row, Ajit Pawar, who heads the ruling Nationalist Congress Party (NCP), offered to step out of the government in a huff. "I heard that during a meeting held at Varsha (CM's official residence, Mumbai), Ajit Pawar furiously offered to step out of the government and extend outside support," he said. The sale of 40-acre government land in Pune's upscale Mundhwa area for Rs 300 crore to Ambada Enterprises LLP, in which Parth Pawar is a majority partner, is under scrutiny amid allegations of irregularities and a lack of requisite clearances. The Opposition has alleged that its market value was Rs 1,800 crore. Pacingflak, Ajit Pawar last week announced that the sale deal executed by Parth's firm had been scrapped.

He also claimed that Parth was unaware that the land purchased by the entity belonged to the government. Speaking to reporters in Chhatrapati Sambhajnagar, Danve accused the BJP of being aware of the land deal case, which it planned to use against NCP later. (PTI)

MP CM Yadav takes 'wild' jibe at Rahul over jungle safari, visit to Pachmarhi during Bihar polls

DEWAS/INDORE, NOV 13 /-- Madhya Pradesh Chief Minister Mohan Yadav on Thursday took a swipe at Congress MP Rahul Gandhi, saying that at a time when Bihar was in the midst of assembly polls he was vacationing at popular hill station Pachmarhi in the central state.

Yadav, a senior BJP leader, claimed the Congress is hardly present on the ground and that is why it is not in power for 20 years in Madhya Pradesh during 45 months in 2018-20 and if things continue as they are, the Grand Old Party will not be able to govern the state for another 50 years. He alleged the Congress never worked for the welfare of farmers. "Congress leaders live in their own world. They float in the air and never come to the ground. They feel happy just running social media accounts. That is why they are out of power in the state for 45 years, and if they continue like this, they will remain out for another 50 years," the Chief Minister said while addressing a function in Dewas.

Taking a swipe at Rahul, he said that while polls were underway in Bihar, the former Congress president was vacationing at popular hill station Pachmarhi in Madhya Pradesh. Polling for the 243-member Bihar Assembly was held in two phases on November 9 and 11, while results will be declared on November 14. The former Congress president, whose party is a constituent of the Opposition grand alliance in Bihar, visited Pachmarhi in Narmadapuram district on November 9 to address a training camp of district Congress presidents and had also gone on a jungle safari. In his address, the Chief Minister said, "Congress leaders and their chief (Gandhi) are alike. While elections were on in Bihar, he (Gandhi) was holidaying in Pachmarhi. That is his level of understanding. He says he can turn potatoes into gold." Earlier, the Chief Minister transferred Rs 250 crore into the bank accounts of 1.33 lakh soybean farmers under the 'Bhavantar' scheme and said the state government was committed to ensuring fair prices for crops.
